FACTS

In March 2011, after viewing Plaintiff's credit report. Plaintiff noticed a Inquiry listed by NCO Financial Systems, Inc. Defendant NCO Financial Systems, Inc accessed Plaintiffs TransUnion Credit Report in December 2009, December 2010 and January 2011 without permission or permissible purpose. Defendant NCO Financial Systems, Inc, is a Collection Agency as defined.

As a result of the Defendants activities or lack thereof the Plaintiff has suffered loss of self-esteem and peace of mind, and has suffered emotional distress, humiliation and embarrassment, and defamation of Credit.

The acts and omissions of the Defendants and its representatives, employees and or agents constitute numerous and multiple violations of the FCRA.

All actions taken by employees, agents, servants, or representatives of any type for Defendant were taken in the line and scope of such individuals' (or entities') employment, agency, or representation.

Defendants' actions - engaging in a pattern and practice of wrongful and unlawful behavior, i.e. reporting false and inaccurate information - were malicious, wanton, reckless, intentional or willful, and performed with the desire to harm Plaintiff, with the knowledge that their actions would very likely harm Plaintiff, and that their actions were taken in violation of the Violation of Pintos Vs Pacific Creditors Association U.S.C1681 B (a) (3) A.

The actions, omissions, misrepresentations, and violations of the FCRA, federal law, and state law by Defendants, regarding the Plaintiff's disputed account, as described herein, constitute harassment which has resulted in the negligent and intentional infliction of mental and emotional distress upon Plaintiff proximately causing Plaintiff to suffer severe mental distress, mental and physical pain, embarrassment, and humiliation of which Plaintiff will in the future continue to suffer.

FDCPA

Plaintiff incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

In the entire course of their actions, Defendant willfully and/or negligently violated multiple provisions of the FDCPA in one or more respects.

The foregoing acts and omissions were undertaken by Defendant willfully, intentionally, and knowingly as part of their routine debt collection business and/or in gross reckless disregard for the Plaintiffs' rights.

FCRA CLAIMS

Plaintiff incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

In the entire course of their actions, Defendant willfully and/or negligently violated multiple provisions of the FCRA in one or more of the following respects:

a. By willfully and/or negligently failing to comport with reinvestigation procedures listed by the FCRA

Taking illegal actions against Plaintiffs

b. Refusing to properly update Plaintiffs' accounts;

- c. Failing to show the accounts as being "disputed" by Plaintiffs; and
- d. Reporting the invalid debt on Plaintiffs' credit reports.

The foregoing acts and omissions were undertaken by Defendant willfully, intentionally, and knowingly as part of their routine debt collection business and/or in gross reckless disregard for Plaintiffs' rights.

As a result of the above violations of the FCRA, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for a declaratory judgment that their conduct violated the FCRA, and Plaintiffs' actual damages, statutory damages, and punitive damages.

NEGLIGENT, RECKLESS AND WANTON CONDUCT

Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs all previous paragraphs.

Defendant's acts, as described herein, were done so negligently and without care or concern for the well-being of the Plaintiff.

As a proximate consequence of the defendant's negligence, Plaintiff has been caused to suffer severe emotional and mental distress, and Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for actual, compensatory, and punitive damages, costs, and any other and further relief deemed appropriate by this Court.

HARASSMENT

Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all previous paragraphs

Defendants published false information about Plaintiff by reporting to one or more of the CRAs, or other third parties, namely failing to notate the disputed nature of the account.

Likewise, Defendants published false information about Plaintiff each time Plaintiff's credit report was accessed - which was the result intended by Defendant.

The publications and defamations were done maliciously, without privilege, and with a willful intent to injure the Plaintiff.

As a proximate consequence of Defendants' false reporting or publishing, Plaintiffs has been caused to suffer severe emotional and mental distress, and Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs for actual, compensatory, and punitive damages, costs and any other and further relief deemed appropriate by this Court.

INTENTIONAL MISREPRESENTATION

Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all previous paragraphs.

Defendants intentionally, maliciously, recklessly and/or negligently misrepresented material facts in that they falsely represented to others that Plaintiff is a deadbeat and does not dispute the aforementioned accounts.

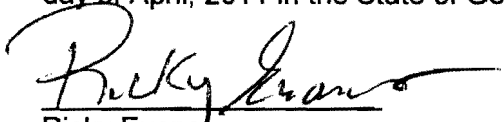

Defendants intend that those who review the credit reports of the Plaintiff will rely upon the misrepresentations and suppressions of material fact related to the mentioned accounts.

Defendant's intended that the justifiable and reasonable reliance by others would adversely affect the Plaintiff.

As a proximate consequence the Defendants' intentional misrepresentation, Plaintiff has been caused to suffer severe emotional and mental distress, and Defendants are liable to Plaintiff for actual, compensatory, and punitive damages, costs and any other and further relief deemed appropriate by this Court
